

A Weekend
with Master Teacher
Marvin Blickenstaff
October 14-15, 2022

APPI Teacher Meeting – The Young Beginner of Today

Friday, October 14, 11:00 am - 12:30 pm - Nazareth Hall: Great Room

University of Northwestern – St. Paul, 3003 Snelling Ave N, St. Paul 55113

Mr. Blickenstaff talks about teaching young beginners, emphasizing artistry and the awareness of sound to even the very young.

Workshop – What Do You Do When the Magic Stops?

Friday, October 14, 2:30 - 4:00 pm - Nazareth Hall: Great Room

University of Northwestern – St. Paul, 3003 Snelling Ave N, St. Paul 55113

We will explore how to help retain a new student's initial enthusiasm for music in order to prevent a later waning of interest. The focus includes whether lessons are student- or teacher-oriented, helping students avoid mistakes, celebrating success, and keeping lessons alive and fresh.

APPI Student Masterclass: Elementary-Early Intermediate

Friday, October 14, 7:00 pm - Nazareth Hall: Great Room

University of Northwestern – St. Paul, 3003 Snelling Ave N, St. Paul 55113

Participants chosen by audition. Observers welcome.

Workshop – Shaping the Sound: Rules of Thumb/Q&A/Lunch

Saturday, October 15, 10:00 am - 1:00 pm - Nazareth Hall: Great Room

University of Northwestern – St. Paul, 3003 Snelling Ave N, St. Paul 55113

We teach details of interpretation, often not realizing that many of those interpretation suggestions fall under several simple, consistent rules that are common to all styles and all composers. When our students are "armed" with those Interpretation Rules of Thumb, their practice is more effective and their understanding of the composer's intent is enhanced.

UNW-St Paul/Academy of Music Masterclass: Intermediate-Advanced

Saturday, October 15, 1:30 pm - Totino Fine Arts: Carousel F2128

University of Northwestern – St. Paul, 3003 Snelling Ave N, St. Paul 55113

Participants chosen by University of Northwestern. Coordinated by Dr. Richard Lange. Observers welcome.

COST FOR ALL EVENTS: $20 APPI members/$35 non-members/undergrad students free with current ID (lunch included on Saturday if pre-register)
